

Military Avenue Church Tutoring

Parental permission for unaccompanied minors

Please review the following supervisory practices for the multi-generational Military Ave. Church tutoring ministry. Knox, EPC has policies in place to ensure the safety of unaccompanied minors. The tutoring program creates particular challenges, which require that we depart slightly from our normal policies. We want parents to be knowledgeable about the situation. Please sign this form to enable your child to participate without your presence.

1. Every driver for Military Ave. Church tutoring ministry has been screened by Knox in order to supervise minors for this ministry. This includes a Criminal History check, a Driver History check, reading the Policy and Procedure manual and attendance at the Youth Ministry Policy and Procedure training.
2. The driver is the identified supervisor for unaccompanied minors attending the Military Ave. Church tutoring program. While participants are at Military Ave. Church, Pastor Randy and his wife Barb Brown are the designated supervisors in conjunction with the Knox driver.
3. The standard policy for Knox sponsored events, for unaccompanied minors, is to have at least two Knox approved adults in attendance. However, given the voluntary nature of this ministry, we can only guarantee one approved adult will be in attendance. There may be adults from Knox and other churches present who have not been approved by Knox, as described in item number 1 above.
4. A driver will never transport an individual minor to Military Ave. Church (where they are the only minor), unless another non-spousal adult is present.
