

MTB 2/12/15

Valentine's Day Brunch Small Group Questions

1. How have you been processing the topics of sin and grace and communication? What is challenging to you? What is encouraging?
2. How did your family of origin communicate about sin, grace, and forgiveness? How do you communicate with your own children about these things?
3. Where do you see the battle against sin beginning in your child's life? How does your parenting inform and encourage this battle? Where does it add confusion or detract from it?
4. What have you been learning about God's love for you? For your children?
5. How has the Lord been delightful to you recently? How have you delighted in your children recently?