Deuteronomy's Call
To Find Life in the God of Grace

Friday evening, January 25
Saturday, January 26 morning to early afternoon

We'll be sharing 5 rich teaching sessions from the 2018 Gospel Coalition women's conference. As we see Israel poised to enter the Promised Land and hear Moses' final words to them, we'll hear our own call to listen and live as women who have been redeemed from a greater slavery and invited into God's great land of promise - the everlasting kingdom of the Son!

The weekend will include dinner Friday evening and box lunch on Saturday. Teaching sessions will be followed by opportunity for deeper interaction and application with women from Knox as we break into small groups for discussion.

Sign up begins in early January.

T2 Mentoring Groups

As C3 Women we are connected to each other in Christ. In Hebrews, we are called to "stir up one another to love and good works."

Paul gives us a pattern for doing this in Titus 2 where he encourages women who are mature in their faith to invest in the lives of younger women, teaching and mentoring them toward greater maturity in faith and life.

These mentoring groups will provide a safe and welcoming place to consider how to live as women who are being re-imaged in Christ, participating in God's holy calling on our lives.

Sign up begins in early January.
Groups to begin in early February.
