DISCUSSION QUESTIONS

---

- Why was the widow so sad at the beginning?
- How did Jesus reveal His power in this story?
- Think about the unclean parts of your life, or your own sinfulness. How does it make you feel to know that Jesus comes near us even when we are unclean, with no fear of getting Himself dirty?
- How does this story point forward to the resurrection of Jesus?
- Perhaps someone you love has died. How can Jesus' interaction with the widow bring us comfort and hope when we are grieving?

Come, thou long expected Jesus,
Born to set thy people free;
From our fears and sins release us,
Let us find our rest in thee.

Israel's strength and consolation,
Hope of all the earth thou art;
Dear desire of every nation,
Joy of every longing heart.

Born thy people to deliver,
Born a child and yet a King,
Born to reign in us forever,
Now thy gracious kingdom bring.

By thine own eternal spirit
Rule in all our hearts alone;
By thine all sufficient merit,
Raise us to thy glorious throne.

All hail the power of Jesus' Name
Let angels prostrate fall
Bring forth the royal diadem
And crown Him Lord of all

Ye chosen seed of Israel's race
Ye ransomed from the fall
Hail Him who saved You by His grace
And crown Him Lord of all

Let every kindred every tribe
On this terrestrial ball
To Him all majesty ascribe
And crown Him Lord of all

Oh that with yonder sacred throng
We at His feet may fall
We'll join the everlasting song
And crown Him Lord of all

Jesus is King!

He is the radiance of the glory of God and the exact imprint of his nature, and he upholds the universe by the word of his power. After making purification for sins, he sat down at the right hand of the Majesty on high, having become as much superior to angels as the name he has inherited is more excellent than theirs.

Hebrews 1: 3-4
